The Most Holy Trinity

June 15, 2014

When I was a child, the mystery of a God who is three-in-one was explained by that commonly used (if somewhat inaccurate) symbol, a three-leaf clover. Since then, many people have attempted to put the reality of Trinity into words that try to explain: Lover, Beloved, Love Outpoured or Source, Wellspring, and Fountain, as well as the more common expression of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Still another approach is to stand in front of a mirror and see yourself as someone's child, someone's parent, and someone's spouse all at the same time—and yet see one person standing there.

These examples begin to tell us something of the Trinitarian mystery, but they cannot contain the whole of it. God simply is, and the closest we can come

TODAY'S READINGS

Ex 34:4b–6, 8–9
2 Cor 13:11–13
Jn 3:16–18

to God's essence is to talk about God's relationship in and of God's self.

But words have their limits. Is there something in our own experience where God reveals a little of this mystery? Why is it that we reach out for others, yearn for love, or seek God in prayer?

Genesis tells us we're created in God's image. If God is relational; then we must be as well. We are created to be in relationship, to know ourselves as connected. The New Testament is filled with that language: Jesus is our brother; we are adopted children of God. We are to love one another as God loves us. We are to become one in God.

In the experience of love and connectedness and in the experience of being part of God's family, we will come to know the mystery of God a little more clearly.

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,
You govern and protect your people
and shepherd them with a father's love.
You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection.
May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures:
Steadfast in love, forgiving
transgressions, sustaining the family,
caring for those in need.
Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children.
Keep them healthy
so they may support a family.
Guide every father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you.
Amen.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Happy Father's Day! On this day, we remember all our fathers, living and deceased. In gratitude, let us pray for them today and always!

The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity flows naturally from Pentecost. The Father, having sent the Son, the Father and the Son having sent the Holy Spirit are now celebrated as a unity, as one God. The Gospel talks about this mystery.

The feast of the Trinity is the feast of all of us who are sent in 'the name of the Father, the Son and the holy Spirit'. The life of the Trinity becomes very ordinary in the love, care, forgiveness we offer to each other. It's also in the ways we try to better the lives of the poor, the depressed, the anxious. In how we try to teach a younger generation the best lessons of humanity and faith, and introduce them to this mystery of God. We are active partners in the work of God, Father, Son and holy Spirit in the world today. Much more can be written and said about the Trinity. It cannot be understood but the meaning of its mystery can be plumbed and enjoyed all our lives. This way of approach from St Ignatius of Loyola brings us into the contemporary work of the Trinity in our world today.

As we read this Gospel on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded that this central mystery of faith is meant to be lived. As baptized Christians, we share in the life of the blessed Trinity and seek to invite others to share in God's love. Let us call upon the Most Holy Trinity to be our Lover and Guide!

It takes a lot of heart and hands to make our Altar Society successful and new members are always welcome. If you are interested in participating, please contact Lenell King.

VISITATION OF THE SICK: Please keep the parish office informed so we may minister to those who are ill at home, in the hospital, or in a nursing facility. For those wishing to receive the Eucharist contact the parish office, 832-2560 or in emergency, 234-6005.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION MARRIAGE
Church regulations require at least six months of preparation for a wedding. Our advice is to call well in advance of that time if you wish to reserve a wedding date and receive information: one's own parish clergy are expected to supervise your Catholic prenuptial preparation and to officiate at the wedding ceremony.

MASS FOR FAMILY & FRIENDS: You can have Masses offered for the deceased as well as for living family and friends. Mass cards and envelopes are available at the office.

PRAYER REQUESTS Those who are ill: Leslie Cuevas, William (Shorty) & Sherrie DeMello, Greg Garstka, Deacon Jack Hunter.

WE WELCOME NEW MEMBERS † PLEASE FILL OUT A NEW MEMBER REGISTRATION FORM AND SUBMIT TO PARISH OFFICE
FR. KHOA WOULD BE HAPPY TO VISIT WITH YOU AND HELP YOU ASSESS YOUR SPIRITUAL NEEDS.
