Ordinary Time

AUGUST 10, 2014 ♦ NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We've been fortunate to make several trips to Hawaii. On one trip, we saw lava flowing from a vent on a volcano. I'll never forget it or the offerings of pineapples, leis, and other things native Hawaiians make to Pele, the volcano goddess. The volcano erupts when Pele is angry; when it is quiet, Pele has gone underground.

Great displays of power and destruction are often connected with divine activity, so it seems strange that the Lord doesn't appear to Elijah in manifestations of wind, earthquake, or fire. Rather, God speaks out of silence, and his first words to Elijah are, "Why are you here?"

That's a wonderful question for us today. Why are we here celebrating the Eucharist? Is it obligation only, or is there something more?

I'd like to think we come to Mass to hear the silence of God calling to our hearts. Here we can meet God face to face in the Word, in the priest, in one another and, most intimately, in the bread and wine that is his Body and Blood. We take him into ourselves so we won't be like Peter, who walked into the middle of a storm and began thinking the storm would destroy him like an angry god.

Rather, we gather at Mass so we can fix our minds and hearts on Christ, whose power is so great that it needn't manifest itself in destruction but who, with a word, can calm every storm and take us safely into his care.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

This Sunday's Gospel features Jesus picking his way to a boat of disciples through a storm of windy darkness over a sea of nighttime waves. At three in the morning, he finds them being tossed about in their own storm of windy fear. Then Peter, who always seems to say the right thing by saying the wrong thing at the right time, calls out across the tumult, "Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you across the water." So Jesus calls back and says, "Come." That is when Peter must decide if he will step off the platform and into the roller coaster, or if he will play it safe. Amazingly, Peter decides not to play it safe but rather steps into the swirling storm of life. There he begins to sink and drown, but it's also there that he discovers God reaching out and grasping him. Had he played it safe and stayed in the boat, he might never have known God's saving hand. He also realizes that what Jesus came preaching was not an amusement park of fun and games but rather a kingdom where life is known only through great risk.

Such is the story of all of our lives when we must choose between a life of apparent security and the real life that is always revealed through risk and trust. Such choices may arise when we face the prospect of marriage counseling or first-time parenting or late-life parenting or job loss or spouse loss or health loss or even what may appear to be loss of faith. At these times, not to step out of the boat and into the swirling storm, not to risk all for the sake of all is to lose all. On the other hand, to step out, even though it be with great fear, is to meet our saving God.

Have a great week and may God bless all of us!

Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This Friday, August 15th, is the solemn Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Mass schedule is in this bulletin. This solemn feast celebrates our belief that at the end of Mary's life on earth, she was raised (assumed) into heaven, body and soul. We can trace this belief back to the fifth century of our church tradition, but it was not officially proclaimed until 1950 by Pope Pius XII.

† With Sympathy †

Father Khoa, St Ann parish, and Our Lady of Chartres extend our deepest sympathy to Myra Moran, whose husband, Steve Moran passed away. May he rest in Eternal Glory and may his loved ones receive God's consolation and peace. Please keep Myra, Mr James Moran, and the family in your prayers.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION
Friday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holy day of obligation. Catholics are obliged by Church law to attend Mass that day.

Mass times are:

Vigil, Thursday August 14: 7:00 p.m

Feast Day, Friday August 15 9:00 a.m.

Religious Ed: Parents, please contact Robert Lizana to register your kids for CCD. We still need teachers for 3rd, 4th, and 10th grade for CCD. Please volunteer to teach our kids. Thank you.
