Trinity Sunday

♦ MAY 31, 2015 ♦

When I was a young girl, I used to imagine I was adopted. This had nothing to do with loving my parents and family, which I did. I think it was one of the many steps in dealing with the life questions, “Who am I” and “Who do I belong to?”

Later in my life, I met people who were actually adopted, and one said the experience of being adopted gave him a much clearer sense of belonging than I knew. “Someone chose me,” he said. “A family wanted me to belong to them and they wanted to belong to me.”

Whenever I read today’s section of Paul’s Letter to the Romans, I remember my friend and my own wondering. The questions of who we are and whose we are don’t go away as we get into adulthood. New schools, new jobs, and new family situations bring those questions into our minds, sometimes with a force that surprises us.

There are times we feel as if we have lost ourselves and lost our way. On other occasions, we might feel alone. When those moments come, all we can do is trust that someone does love us and calls us to be our best selves.

In his letter, Paul reminds us who we are—the adopted children of God—and in the process he also reminds us whose we are. We belong to God, and we are grounded in this reality by our baptism in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

God, in his being, is a love relationship. Is it any wonder that our belonging grounds us in the dark times and gives us joy in the others. Is there anything else we need to know?

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” It’s interesting that this passage in the gospel is used for today’s Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. Baptism removes Original Sin and creates us anew as a child of God, but how is this related to the Trinity? Baptism is a beautiful sacrament uniting us with the communion of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

In a sense we could say a newly baptized human being is a physical manifestation of the Holy Spirit, i.e. the love between the Father and the Son. The intended plan of God and the order of creation is that a child is the outcome of the communion, union and love between a man and woman (husband and wife). It is not until the woman has conceived that the husband and wife now become father and mother, and these three are a manifestation of the communion of life found in the Holy Trinity. This communion of life needs to be nurtured and taught in a child’s upbringing for the grace of baptism to produce good fruit. Grace builds on nature. So, it is critical in bringing life into the world, followed by baptism in the name of the Trinity, that mother and father in the order of nature teach and nourish their child/ children in a life of loving communion so the child may grow in wisdom and grace on their journey to heaven. Have a great week! May God bless all of us!
