Dear Padre,

Does a Saturday wedding Mass count for Sunday obligation?

Your question is frequently asked of priests, so it's good to help clarify this matter. If you attend Mass anywhere in a Catholic rite either on Sunday or in the evening of the preceding day, then the obligation is satisfied (Canon 1248). "Evening" is generally understood in most dioceses as anytime from 4 PM onward. Thus, an afternoon Mass (wedding or otherwise) before 4 PM on Saturday is not an evening Mass and doesn't fulfill the obligation.

Moreover, if Mass is celebrated in a Catholic rite after 4 PM on Saturday, the Sunday obligation is satisfied regardless if the scriptural texts differ from those of the Sunday or holy day (Canon 1248 commentary).

A related question often asked of priests is whether Communion may be received more than once a day. Any eligible Catholic can receive Communion "a second time on the same day only within the eucharistic celebration in which the person participates" (Canon 917). "A second time" doesn't mean "repeatedly." Only those in danger of death, or priests who trinate at Mass, can receive Communion a third time in one day. This law is intended to promote a full sharing in the Lord's Body and Blood, while preventing the abuse of receiving multiple Communion out of misguided devotion.

A Word From Pope Francis

Allow me to call your attention to the value and beauty of marriage....The differences between man and woman are not for opposition or subordination, but for communion and generation, always in the "image and likeness" of God. Without mutual self-giving, neither one can understand the other in depth.

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends, Jesus likes you. Jesus loves you. Jesus longs for you!

Have you ever felt judged by your family? St. John Paul II noted that the family "is the cradle of life and love" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 40). Yet unmet expectations and divergent priorities can cause tension in even the most loving family situations. This is true for us, and it was true for Jesus!

In today's Gospel, Jesus has returned home to Nazareth. A large crowd gathered, and Jesus finds himself facing stiff opposition from his family. This was likely Jesus' large, extended family. The Semitic language has no specific words for extended relatives, so everyone is "brother" or "sister." The entire clan has gotten wind of Jesus' preaching, and they are not amused. "They set out to seize him, for they said, 'He is out of his mind.'" To make matters worse, the religious authorities even accuse Jesus of being possessed by a demon. It's a mess by any standards.

The family's perspective is perhaps understandable. In Jewish culture, teachers and scribes underwent intensive schooling and apprenticeships, none of which Jesus had done. The family knew Jesus the carpenter, not Jesus the rabbi. For them, Jesus' bold preaching threatened the reputation of their family! Jesus' words to his family can seem controversial. "Who are my mother and my brothers?" Yet Jesus knows what he is about. He has always known he would be about the business of his Heavenly Father. And what is that business? It is the business of the new covenant and the Kingdom of God. In this Kingdom, we are all adopted sons and daughters of the King. Jesus begins, even now, to expand the perspective of his listeners. Being welcomed into this family does not depend on our families of birth or ethnic origin, but a wholehearted commitment to "do the will of God."

May God bless all of us! Enjoy your praying!

Bible Study: We study Ephesians. Please join us. Classes are on Wed at 6:00pm. For more information, please contact Ruth.

Knights of Columbus: meet first Sunday. For more info, contact Garland M. 697-1266.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION MARRIAGE

Church regulations require at least six months of preparation for a wedding. Our advice is to call well in advance of that time if you wish to reserve a wedding date and receive info: one's own parish clergy are expected to supervise your Catholic prenuptial preparation and to officiate at the wedding.

VISITATION OF THE SICK: Please keep the parish office informed so we may minister to those who are ill at home, in the hospital, or in a nursing facility. For those wishing to receive the Eucharist contact the parish office, 832-2560.

Bereavement Committee: Please contact Sharon Leimer at 539-9928. Lasagna, green salad, rolls, and deserts will be provided for the funeral reception upon request. Thank you.
