Dear Padre,

What are the Catholic Church's liturgical seasons? When does a new liturgical year begin?

A liturgical year is an annual cycle of communal prayer and celebration. The Roman Catholic Church divides its liturgical year into five distinct seasons: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time.

Our liturgical year starts on the first Sunday of Advent. The Christmas season officially starts with the evening celebrations on December 24. Christmas runs for more than twelve days, through the feast of the Epiphany to the Baptism of the Lord, which is celebrated on either the second or third Sunday in January.

Next is Ordinary Time, which is divided into two parts. The first part ends the day before Ash Wednesday, which is the first of the forty days of Lent. Lent is followed by the seven weeks of the Easter season, which ends on the day we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

On Pentecost we pick up the second part of Ordinary Time, which ends the day before the first Sunday of Advent (this year that's in two weeks, on December 2). Each liturgical season has distinct flavors and traditions, but they come together in harmony to help us reflect on the one mystery at the heart of every liturgy no matter the season: the saving mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection.

A Word From Pope Francis

In the course of the liturgical year a parish priest speaks about temperance ten times but only mentions charity or justice two or three times, an imbalance results....The same thing happens when we speak more about law than about grace, more about the Church than about Christ.

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends, Jesus likes you. Jesus loves you. Jesus longs for you!

Dear brother and sister, we have had a stretch over the last couple of weeks to celebrate the Mass for all the souls of our love one, also we heard in the news with number of people got kill by the fire in California reminds us all that life is valuable. It also is a reminder that any of us could go home at any moment.

We never know when our last day will be, and Jesus says that in the Gospel this weekend: "But of that day or hour, no one knows." God is the only one who knows when we are going to be called from this life to the next one. As we move from Ordinary time into Advent, the theme of not knowing the day or the hour will continue.

This time of year is a good reminder for all of us to keep our eyes fixed on the Lord because we do not know when our lives will end. Maybe this realization will help us live our lives with extra urgency and compassion. If we live every day as if it could be our last, we will more likely be kind to others and enjoy the most we can out of our lives. May the Lord help us keep our eyes focused on him and let us all not take for granted the gift of life we have been given because we don't know when it will end.

Happy Thanksgiving!

May God bless all of us and enjoy your praying!

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION MARRIAGE
Church regulations require at least six months of preparation for a wedding. Our advice is to call well in advance of that time if you wish to reserve a wedding date and receive info: one's own parish clergy are expected to supervise your Catholic prenuptial preparation and to officiate at the wedding.

2 USCCB Prayer for Vocations #10

O God, Who wish all men to be saved/ and to come to the knowledge of Your truth:/ send, we beg You, laborers into Your harvest,/ and grant them grace to speak Your word with all boldness;/ so that Your word may spread and be glorified,/ and all nations may know You, the only God,/ and Him Whom You have sent, Jesus Christ Your Son, Our Lord,/ Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

CCD: If you have any questions, please contact Robert Lizana the DRE. Thank you.

Bereavement Committee: Please contact Sharon Leimer at 539-9928. Lasagna, green salad, rolls, and deserts will be provided for the funeral reception upon request. Thank you.
