Oh, Sweet Child of Bethlehem,

Grant that we may share with all our hearts in the profound mystery of Christmas. Put into the hearts of men and women this peace for which they sometimes seek so desperately and which you alone can give to them. Reveal to them also your beauty, holiness and purity. Awaken in their hearts love and gratitude for your infinite goodness. Join them all together in your love.

And give us your heavenly peace, Amen

Fr. David's Gift to you:

St. Ann & Our Lady of Chartres
With appreciation for all you have done this year to create and sustain such a loving parish and community for myself and all of us. It is with much love I wish to give to each family one of the two books at the back of church this Christmas.

The Power of the Babe

“At the center of history, when BC turns into AD, is What? The birth of a Baby. That birth of that Baby, the Son of God, the Messiah, the Christ and Our Savior, Jesus of Nazareth.

Everybody wanted to see the Baby. Everybody was watching the Baby. Everybody wanted to hold the Baby. Everybody wanted the image of the Baby held in their minds forever.

Jesus could have just shown up as an adult, but God wanted us to know that this Baby...really is of human nature. He is one of us. He is not a phantom. He is not a ghost.

God became vulnerable, God became helpless, God became a Baby in a crib because that's precisely what He wants us to do with Him – He wants us to hold that Baby, He wants us to kiss that Baby. That's God's desire for us.”

“This is the miracle of the birth of Jesus.”

— Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan,
Archbishop of New York
