This is very practical, because people gather at synagogues. The word synagogue means a gathering place. Often Times Gentiles would attend the synagogue as well as the Jews. We find in the first reading that the Gentiles rejoice since Paul is turning his efforts to them. This Sunday is called Good Shepherd Sunday. This year's readings are not as clear as other vears' gospel readings on the Fourth Sunday of Easter. Still there is a reference to the followers of Christ as sheep. and Christ is the shepherd. A shepherd gives clear protected attention to his sheep for they need to be fed and prtedted. Jesus does that for us. Church Cleaning April Valerie, Marlow & Conner Ladner Thank you!
