BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Why was Jesus baptized? Some speculate that it was to indicate that John's message truly was from God. Others suggest that Jesus wanted to give a sign of humility, or he wanted to take on the character of a sinner (though sinless himself) just as on the cross he took on the weight of mankind's sins. Some speculate that from the beginning of his public ministry he wanted to manifest the Trinity through the voice and the dove. Let us reflect on our own baptism and on our responsibility toward those for whom we are godparents.

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God coming upon him. Matthew 3:13-17

St. Hilary

St. Hilary of Poitiers was one of the great champions of the Catholic belief in the divinity of Christ. By his preaching, his treatise on the Trinity, his part in the Councils, his daring opposition to the Emperor Constantius, he showed himself a courageous apostle of the truth. He could not tolerate that the specious plea of safeguarding peace and unity should be allowed to dim the light of Gospel teaching. St. Pius IX proclaimed him a doctor of the Church.

In Scotland St. Kentigern's feast is a memorial. He was a missionary to Scotland and bishop of the Strathclyde Britons. Exiled, he fled to Wales.

According to the 1962 Missal of Bl. John XXIII the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, today is the feast of Commemoration of the Baptism of Our Lord Jesus Christ.
