Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Today's Gospel story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead serves as a preparation for the resurrection of Jesus. Lazarus was already dead for four days. But the "four days" also stand in contrast to the "three days" that Jesus is truly dead before His resurrection and begins to hint at the fundamental difference between them. When Jesus called Lazarus from the tomb, his hands and feet were still bound with burial bands and his face was still wrapped in a burial cloth, symbolically indicating that, although he has been restored to life, he is destined to die again he is still bound by the power of death. But the Risen Jesus left behind in His tomb the burial cloths that bound Him in death, symbolically indicating that His resurrection signifies the definitive victory over the power of death. Unlike Lazarus, He is no longer bound by the power of death and will never die again. The resuscitation of Lazarus from death invites us to believe in Jesus as "the resurrection and the life", the one who offers us a share in His victory over the bonds of death in an eternal life with its future and present dimensions. Whoever believes in Jesus has the hope that he "will live" eternal life in the future after he has died physically. And whoever "lives and believes" in Jesus "will never die" spiritually in this life but will live even now the eternal life that continues after our physical death. The Gospel today calls us to reflect on Baptism as a dying and rising with Jesus. In Baptism we die to sin's power over us, rising as children of God. In Baptism we join ourselves with Christ, who conquered death once and for all so that we who believe in him may have eternal life. With Martha and Mary, we are called to profess our belief that Jesus is indeed the Resurrection and the life.

St. Ann Annual Easter Egg Hunt

Parishioners, we are in need of a volunteer(s) to help out with this year's Annual Easter Egg Hunt at St. Ann. Our Annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held on Palm Sunday after CCD. Children are invited to hunt eggs and search for prizes! Donations of prefilled eggs (no chocolate, it melts) and stuffed animals (new or gently used) are needed. Filled eggs and animals may be dropped off in the box located in the back of the church. Eggs and prizes may be dropped off until April 12th. Children are invited to hunt for eggs! Please see Susan Peleaz if you would like to help make this year's event a success. Thank you for your support!

Catholic Sharing Appeal 2014

This Sunday we experience the compassion of Christ for Lazarus, as well as for Mary and Martha. Let us ask our compassionate Lord to bless each of us with the Holy Spirit, so that we may feel the same love for those in need, by helping to support them through a gift to the Catholic Sharing Appeal. Our goal this year at St. Ann is $14,178.00. Our Lady of Chartres is $1,155.00. With every parish family's full participation, we will surely exceed this goal and help so many in need, building the Kingdom of God locally. For those of you who have already responded with a gift, please accept our sincere gratitude.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION MARRIAGE

Church regulations require at least six months of preparation for a wedding. Our advice is to call well in advance of that time if you wish to reserve a wedding date and receive information: one's own parish clergy are expected to supervise your Catholic prenuptial preparation and to officiate at the wedding ceremony.
