Pentecost

June 8, 2014

People respond to fear in two instinctive ways: fight or flight. The disciples chose to flee—hiding in an upper room, waiting for the coast to clear. Of course they were afraid. Their teacher and Lord had been taken from them; the religious authorities did not like them. Even though Jesus wanted them to go into the world, they didn't have the slightest idea of what they would say and where they would go.

Jesus promised to send them an Advocate who would guide them and reveal the truth to them, but they didn't know what that would look like. And into that locked room the Holy Spirit blew, bringing gifts of grace and strength they couldn't imagine.

Were they still afraid? Probably. Did they suddenly know what to do? Probably not. But they knew they could not be silent.

Something compelled them to go out, confident that they had a gift to share with the world. What they couldn't have realized was that the Spirit fell on the world that day as well—allowing those whose hearts were opened to hear the words of life preached by those who at one time didn't know what to say.

Were they still afraid?

Pentecost is often referred to as the birthday of the Church. The Church remains what it was at the first—imperfect women and men gifted by the Spirit to speak the Good News to other imperfect women and men who have been gifted to hear it.

The Spirit blows through the world even now—the presence of God, our Advocate, who invites us to proclaim Christ to all and gives us the grace to do so.

Prayer For The Fathers.

*God our Father,
you govern and protect your people
and shepherd them with a father's love.
You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection.
May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures:
Steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, caring for those in need.
Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children.
Keep them healthy
so they may support a family.
Guide every father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you.
Amen.*

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We conclude our Easter Season this weekend as we remember the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples on the solemn feast of Pentecost. But before we return to the Sundays of Ordinary Time in our Church year, we will celebrate two important solemn feasts: the Most Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. This gives us an opportunity to reflect upon central mysteries of our Catholic faith.

Looking around at our faith community of St Ann and Our Lady of Chartres, you see many gifts. You will see those who sing and those who read, those who teach and those who offer hospitality. You will see some who feed the hungry and others who serve on committees. You will see some who decorate and others who distribute the Body and Blood of Christ. Some have a gift for leading prayer, some have making people feel at home. Everybody has some gift. Still, not all gifts are equal. Some people excel at their gifts. Others exercise them less capably. But it is important to exercise the gift because the use of our gifts releases the power of the Holy Spirit. God gives gifts for a reason. They are meant to be nurtured and used. St. Paul writes in his letter to the Corinthians, which is our second reading this weekend: "To each individual, the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." When used properly, gifts draw attention to God who gives, not to the person who has received.

The manifold gifts within our church community show the marvels of the Holy Spirit. When people share their gifts, they create a spirit of selflessness and inspire others to service. They help everyone appreciate the goodness of God, who gives even before we ask. When people look at you, they also see gifts. As we celebrate Pentecost this weekend, it might be helpful to ask ourselves: 1) For which gifts am I most grateful? 2) How do I share them?

Let us call upon the Holy Spirit to be our Helper and Guide!
