On Palm Sunday, we gather as a Church to celebrate Jesus' coming into Jerusalem and hear the story of his passion and death. Each Gospel writer tells the story a little differently. Each one lifts up different faces and characters, and through their eyes we watch what unfolds.

Luke's Gospel is the only one that mentions the women who followed Jesus from Galilee (23:55-56). We know nothing about these women other than where they came from, but two things stand out: These women temporarily set aside their Passover preparations to care for a man who had been publicly condemned as a criminal, and they were willing to look their beloved Jesus' death full in the face. They watched while Joseph of Arimathea lay him in the tomb and made sure that Jesus would be cared for even in death. They saw where he was buried and laid out and then went to prepare the spices and oils that would anoint his body and honor it.

Today, these women are examples of the countless anonymous disciples who quietly challenge culture and politics to follow the Lord's call. We rarely notice them, even now, but they are in our churches and our neighborhoods, willing to do what needs to be done, even if it means suffering, sacrificing, or looking rejection and death in the face. As we enter Holy Week, these people just might be the companions we need.

A Word From Pope Francis

"This week it would benefit all of us to look at the crucifix, to kiss the wounds of Jesus, to kiss them on the crucifix. He took upon himself all human suffering, he clothed himself in this suffering..."

Let us kiss the crucifix and say: for my sake, thank you Jesus, for me."

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

This weekend we enter the Holiest Week of the Year. This week begins and ends in triumph and rejoicing and is the most important week of the Christian calendar. We again walk through the events of Jesus' life that brought us salvation. I encourage all of us to participate in the Holy Week Liturgies that make this week the center of our faith. Lent ends on Holy Thursday night and we begin the days called the Triduum (three days) keeping the observances of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Vigil/Sunday. While Lent ends on Holy Thursday night, our spiritual path leads us even more deeply into the exercise of keeping the Triduum to mark our faith life with Jesus' own life, as told in the Scriptures of those days: The Washing of the Feet on Holy Thursday, the Passion Account on Good Friday, and the readings of the Vigil and Easter Sunday, which tell of our being baptized into the death and resurrected life of Christ Jesus.

Please give special attention to the schedule for all of our Holy Week services on the bulletin today. Participating in our Holy Week Services is a fitting way to conclude our Season of Lent. I want to encourage you to join us in this most solemn celebration of the entire Church year. Beginning with the blessing of the new fire, the Easter Vigil recounts all of salvation history culminating in baptism and the renewal of our baptismal promises.

Our Liturgy committee, liturgical ministers, choir and musicians, those who decorate the church, are working hard to prepare for the Sacred Triduum. We want to thank them for generously giving of their time and talent. Along with the other priests of our Diocese, me and our Deacon will participate in the Chrism Mass at 10:30 a.m. at B.V.M Cathedral on Tuesday, March 22. At this Mass, Bishop Morin blesses the Oils of Chrism, Catechumens and the Sick which are then sent to every church parish for their celebrations of the Sacraments during the coming year. Please keep our elect in your special prayers this Week. At our Easter Vigil on Saturday evening, they will be celebrating the Sacraments of Initiation (i.e. Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation). May God especially bless us during this holy time of year. Please continue to pray for one another and our parish.

Special Diocesan Collection For The Holy Land: will be taken up on Good Friday. Please be generous towards our Christian family in the Holy Land. Envelopes are located at the Church entrance.

Annual Easter Egg Hunt: is this Sunday March 20, 2016 after CCD. Children are invited to hunt eggs and search for prizes! Thank you for your support!
