June 12, 2016 ♦ Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

When I was seven or eight, I stole a package of gum from the store. When my mother found out about it, she dropped what she was doing and made me take money from my piggy bank. We then drove back to the store where I had to bring my money to the cashier and confess that I had taken the gum. She thanked me for bringing the money and spoke those sweet words, “I forgive you.” I never forgot the lesson, and I never stole anything again. If only that were the only sin I had to worry about!

Throughout our lives, we become increasingly aware of the many ways we fall short of the holiness to which God calls us. Male or female, ordained or lay, old or young, we often give in to what tempts us because it looks so good in the moment. Only later do we realize the harm we have done to ourselves or someone else. The woman with the jar of ointment knew only too well that her life was not perfect. But she also heard Jesus’ invitation to repent and the love in his message. She laid her life and her service at his feet and knew the forgiveness of God. The Pharisee, on the other hand, could not imagine that he needed forgiveness and so was not open to the transformation that Jesus offered.

All of us sin and are in need of forgiveness. When we ask for and accept that forgiveness in our lives, we are able to give far more than we can imagine. Just ask Mary, Joanna, Susanna, and all the other women and men who followed Jesus.

A Word From Pope Francis

“To become merciful, we must first acknowledge that we have done many things wrong: we are sinners! We need to know how to say: Lord, I am ashamed of what I have done.”

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

In the first reading today when David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." Nathan answered David: "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin: you shall not die."

The first reading for this Sunday starts in right after Nathan confronted David on his sin. Nathan presents the sin in the form of a story about people other than David. Once David declares how sinful the person is in Nathan's story then Nathan turns the mirror toward David saying, 'You are this man.' The one who committed sinful atrocities. It is then that David, once he is caught, proclaims his sinfulness.

Perhaps we can look at our own concrete need for conversion by truthfully looking at our lives, usually with the help of another trusted person. We cannot seek forgiveness for the things in ourselves to which we are blind.

The Pharisees of today were blind in their own sins and unable to receive the loving and forgiving gaze of the Father. The woman in the gospel certainly knew her sins and admitted them. As a result, she was overwhelmed by the forgiving love of Jesus. Perhaps we can allow ourselves to be overwhelmed with the love of God so he can heal us of our sins.

May God bless all of us!

...Fr. Khoa
