Dear Padre,

When our priest raises the host during the consecration at Mass, a parishioner says out loud, “My Lord and my God!” Am I out of line to feel this isn’t right?

The liturgical assembly at Mass isn’t a random collection of individuals; rather, the faithful form a holy people to give thanks to God. “They are consequently to avoid any appearance of singularity or division....This unity is beautifully apparent from the gestures and bodily postures observed together by the faithful” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 95–96). Moreover, unity is achieved in the vocal prayers and responses at Mass, “that, gathered into one body by the Holy Spirit,” we “may truly become a living sacrifice in Christ” (Eucharistic Prayer IV).

The Eucharistic Prayer—the preeminent prayer of the Church—is voiced by the priest on everyone’s behalf. All participate in the collective prayer by our acclamations throughout: the dialogue preface, Sanctus, memorial, and great amen. Here we express our belief in the mystery of faith and our unity in the Church’s prayer.

The revised Roman Missal omitted the memorial acclamation, “Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again,” because there’s no equivalent text in the original Latin and also because it’s more of a proclamation of faith than a prayer.

Likewise, “My Lord and my God” is a proclamation of faith that may be for some an entirely appropriate response for a believer as the host is raised, but the Church provides three communal prayers as acclamations immediately following the consecration. Any personal expression should be said quietly to preserve the unity of the Mass.

A Word From Pope Francis

Mercy warms the heart and makes it sensitive to the needs of brothers and sisters with sharing and participation. Thus, mercy requires everyone to be instruments of justice, reconciliation, and peace. Let us never forget that mercy is the keystone in the life of faith, and the concrete form by which we make Jesus’ resurrection visible.

From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends, Jesus likes you. Jesus loves you. Jesus longs for you!

Should we be a little easier on Thomas? The last few days have been a whirlwind. On Thursday, a Passover celebration went horribly awry as Jesus was betrayed and taken into custody for unstated crimes. Less than 24 hours later, the simple arrest has turned into a death sentence to be carried out that very afternoon. Most of the disciples fled, including Thomas. He would have heard of the events of Good Friday secondhand, in shock over the death of his Lord and Master. Then Sunday morning arrives with joy from a few disciples Jesus is risen! But there is no persistent sight of him, only Mary Magdalene's quick moment in the garden and an empty tomb. Another day passes. The Apostles are gathered that Monday night, but Thomas is absent. He returns to a jubilant report of the risen Lord. Again, Thomas has seen nothing. The experience must have been surreal. Did Jesus really appear raised from the dead? Did he really suffer and die? Has all of this been some strange hoax? Desperate for an answer, Thomas insists, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

After his resurrection, Jesus' body mangled and bloody from the crucifixion is restored. Did it need the scars? A perfected body would have taught us one lesson: everything is renewed as it once was, the past erased. Jesus chooses another lesson, however. He retains his scars that we might know him. In the whirlwind of our lives, we make our own mistakes, our own betrayals and compromises. In the resurrected Jesus, we see a God who does not forget his own sorrow. We are invited to meet him-wound for wound- and place our hand on his own nail scarred palm, the eternal sign of his everlasting mercy.

May God bless all of us! Enjoy your praying!

...Fr. Khoa

†With Sympathy †

Fr Khoa and the community of St. Ann and OL of Chartres Parish extend our deepest sympathy to the family of James Moran, who passed away on April 4, 2018. May he rest in Eternal Glory and may his loved ones receive God's consolation and peace. Please keep Jame and his family in your prayers.

Last weekend at the Easter Vigil our RCIA Candidates Grady Joseph Laney were baptized, and Allison Laney were received into Full Communion with the Roman Catholic Church after making a Solemn Profession of Faith, celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation and sharing in the Holy Eucharist. As we welcome them into our church community let us pray that they continues to grow in understanding of the paschal mystery.
