From Father Khoa's Desk...

Dear Parishioners and Friends, Jesus likes you. Jesus loves you. Jesus longs for you!

Today the church celebrates the feast of the Holy Family. It is a time when we give thanks to God for the gift of family and reflect upon how we are called to be family. There are many blessings experienced by many families but in the family it also has been both positive and negative, blessings and challenges. So, given such experiences, what might be a reflection on this feast of the Holy Family that we celebrate today?

Have you ever seen a Christmas card of the Holy Family? Usually, Mary and Joseph are serene, looking peacefully upon the beautiful baby Jesus. The animals in the manger are even smiling as they're seated or standing perfectly still. The shepherds are there rubbing elbows with the angels. The Holy Family look so prayerful, peaceful and perfect. The fact of the matter is that a holy family isn't the same as a perfect family. A loving family is one that has God as their center and lives that fact. Life is messy and this human family is the only one that our good God has and you know what, He takes us, mess and all and loves us.

Today, reflect upon how blessed we are to have one another. Ask the Lord, through the intercession of St. Joseph and Our Lady to help you be Godly in your life. If God can find something in our life for which to be thankful and loving, surely we can do the same with one another in our families whether they are our immediate family or our wider human family. The fact of the matter is, we have more in common with one another than we might think. God knows this and in fact, wants us to realize that we have more in common with Him than we might think, His son, our brother, Jesus. So, if we need to point to a perfect family member, point to Christ and show others the way to Him as well.

Tuesday, January 1st is a Holy Day of obligation. Masses for the Feast of Mary, the Mother of God are: Monday the Vigil at 6:00 pm and Tuesday at 9:00 a.m

The Liturgies of Christmas were so beautiful and inspiring. We extend our thanks to our organist and the choir, Altar Society, set up and clean-up crew, and our countless volunteers. Thanks for being a part of this family and for all that you do to love, serve and follow Christ among us. You are more appreciated than you can ever imagine. Thanks for being with us at the Christmas and New Year liturgies. God Bless all of our families on this feast of the Holy Family.

— THANK YOU —

To all those who sent many cards, gifts and goodies to me over the holidays;

*May God bless all of us!
A very Happy, Safe, and Blessed New Year
...Fr. Khoa*
