

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I have everything I need.
He lets me rest in fields of green
grass,
And leads me to the quiet pools of fresh water.
He gives me new strength.
He guides me in the right paths,
As he has promised.
Even if I go through the deepest
darkness,
I will not be afraid, Lord,
For you are with me.
Your shepherd's rod and staff protect me.
You prepare a banquet for me,
Where all my enemies can see me.
You welcome me as an honored
guest,
And fill my cup to the brim.
I know that your goodness and love,
Will be with me all my life;
And your house will be my
Home as long as I live.

Communion of Heaven and Earth

As I walked the path God set out for me, I found myself coming continuously back to the concept of the coming together of "Heaven and Earth" in this modern-day world. As my journey continued and I envisioned the coming together in the Eucharist, my thoughts turned to "there must have been more." As I investigated the past and the events that surround our faith, I discovered that I was correct in my thinking.

The Immaculate Conception:

Well before the celebration of the consecration of the Eucharist, we had the creation and birth of Jesus. God in making His plan a reality, brought together heaven and earth within Our Blessed Mother, thus creating the first communion of heaven and earth, for all of us to see.

The Last Supper:

This second communion of heaven and earth came to pass at the last supper. Christ in His celebration and consecration of the bread (His body) and wine, (His blood) brought together both heaven and earth. At the Altar, the miracle of the coming together of both heaven and earth continues today in the celebration of the Eucharist.

As Catholics, we have the opportunity; everyday if we choose, to experience the coming together of both heaven and earth through the celebration and consecration at mass. As we practice our Catholic faith, we receive the very unique opportunity to experience this miracle; knowing full well, that as the Priest transforms the bread and wine into the body and blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ, we too experience at the Altar; or anywhere a mass is celebrated, the miracle of heaven and earth coming together right in front of our eyes. As we continue to receive communion, we are again reminded that as Catholics we are receiving within our bodies the true coming together of what God created... The full communion of heaven and earth...

Fr. Cuddy's Corner

Liam was reading the morning newspaper and was shocked to read in the obituary column that he had died. He quickly phoned his best friend Mike.

*"Did you see the paper? They say I died!"
"Yes, I saw it!" replied Mike.
"Where are you calling from?"*
