Twentieth Sunday

Ordinary Time

Soul of Christ Sanctify Me

*Make a saint of me. Show me how to rid myself of traits of character that annoy others;
that make the lives of those about me miserable.*

*Help me to break the hardened shell within
Which selfishness hides, and which renders me
Insensible to the needs of others.*

May I become great enough to be the servant of Both rich and poor.

May I grow strong in virtue, so as to sustain the weak and encourage the weary.

May my heart increase its power to love, so as to be able to minister kindness to the timid and mercy to the wayward.

*May I have the honor to bring cheer to all my fellow men
On the long and sometimes rugged road of life.*

— Amen

I'm Fine

There's nothing whatever the matter with me.
I'm just as healthy as I can be.
I have arthritis in both my knees and when I talk, I talk with a weeze.

My pulse is weak and my blood is thin, but I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.
I think my liver is out of whack and a terrible pain is in my back.

My hearing is poor, my sight is dim, most everything seems to be out of trim, but I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

I have arch supports for both my feet, or I wouldn't be able to go on the street. Sleeplessness I have night after night, and in the morning I'm just a sight.

My memory is failing, my head's in a spin, I'm peacefully living on aspirin. But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

The moral is, as this tale we unfold, that for you and me who are growing old, it's better to say, "I'm fine" with a grin than to let them know the shape we're in.

— Cardinal Cushing

Fr. Cuddy's Corner

A little boy opened the family Bible and fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed in between the pages.
"Mum, look what I found," he said.
"What have you got there dear?"
"I think it's Adam's underwear!"

Prayer for Rain

O Mighty God, Your fingerprints are scattered across all of creation. Through each thing You have created, You show Your glory. Your caring and gentle nature are on display for all to see and experience. You open the heavens and bring the waters down from above. Lord, this very day we ask that You open the flood gates. Bring down nourishing rains, that the land may be
