Twenty-Second Sunday

Ordinary Time

LORD, you have probed me, You know me:
You know when I sit and stand; You understand my thoughts from afar.
You sift through my travels and my rest; with all my ways You are familiar.

Even before a word is on my tongue, LORD, You know it all.

Behind and before You, encircle me and rest Your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, far too lofty for me to reach.

Where can I go from Your spirit?
From Your presence, where can I flee?

If I ascend to the heavens, You are there; if I lie down in Sheol, there You are.

If I take the wings of dawn, and dwell beyond the sea,
O Even there Your hand guides me, Your right hand holds me fast.

If I say, "Surely darkness shall hide me, and night shall be my light."
Darkness is not dark for You, and night shines as the day.
Darkness and light are but one.

You formed my inmost being, You knit me in my mother's womb.

I praise You, because I am wonderfully made; wonderful are Your works!

My very self You know.

My bones are not hidden from You, when I was being made in secret, fashioned in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw me unformed; in Your book all are written down;
my days were shaped, before one came to be.

How precious to me are Your designs, O God; how vast the sum of them!

Were I to count them, they would outnumber the sands, when I complete them, still You are with me.

When You would destroy the wicked, O God, the bloodthirsty depart from me!

Your foes who conspire a plot against You are exalted in vain.

Prayer for Rain

O Mighty God, Your fingerprints are scattered across all of creation. Through each thing You have created, You show Your glory. Your caring and gentle nature are on display for all to see and experience. You open the heavens and bring the waters down from above. Lord, this very day we ask that You open the flood gates. Bring down nourishing rains, that the land may be quenched and bring forth much fruit. Amen.
