

The Transfiguration

Jesus took Peter, James and John and led them a high mountain. Apart by themselves.

Jesus was transfigured before them, and His clothes became dazzling white. Then Elijah and Moses appeared, and they were conversing with Jesus.

Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here!" Peter hardly knew what to say, they were terrified.

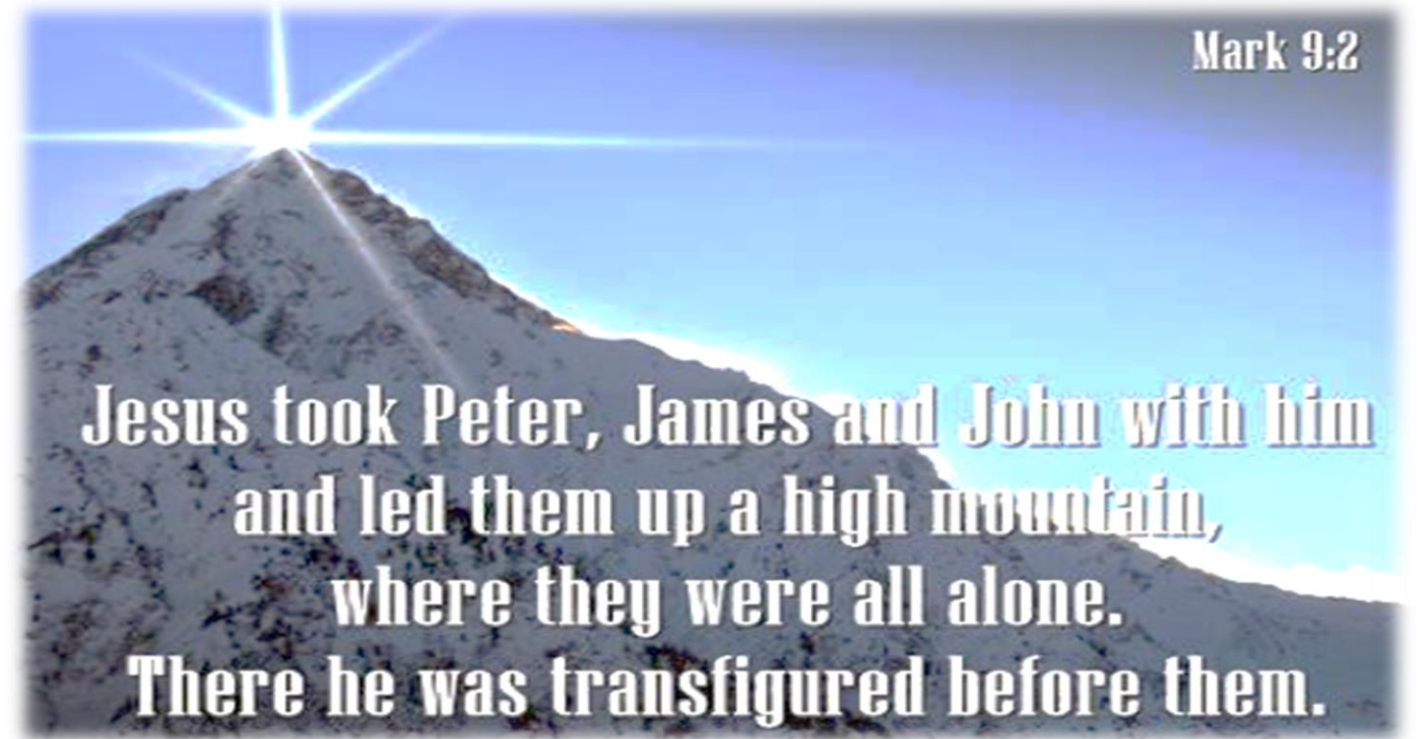

Then a cloud came casting a shadow over them: from the cloud came a voice, "This is My Beloved Son, listen to Him."

As they were coming down the mountain Jesus charged them not to tell anyone.

"Rabbi, it is good for us to be here."
