

Prayer to the Suffering Christ...

*In the name of Your bitter suffering
In the name of Your death on the Cross.
Lord Jesus, we pray to You.*

Remember us, O Lord, in Your Kingdom...

*You were betrayed by the Kiss of Judas, and still You entrust Your love to us. You were overcome by sadness in Gethsemane, and still
You fill us with joy in Your life.
You were chained like an evildoer,
and still You give us the freedom as Children of God.*

We Pray to You...

*You were accused by false witnesses, and still
You forgive us our lies.*

You were condemned unjustly, and still You forgive us our injustices.

You were denied by Your Apostle Peter, and still You pardon us our denials.

We Pray to You...

You received spittle on Your face, and still You grant dignity to us. You were slapped in the face like a servant and still You grant freedom to us. You kept silent before Your tormentors, and still You instruct us.

*You were crowned with thorns, and You still make us Kings.
You were stripped of Your clothes, and You still dress us in Your grace. You were raised up on Golgotha and still You exalt us in glory.*

You were bound to the Cross, and still You absolve us from sin. You were given vinegar to drink, and still You quench our thirst. You were abused even in Your agony, and still You fill us with Your Blessings.

You died for us on the Cross, and still You give us eternal life in Your Kingdom.
