CHRIST IS RISEN

The Lord has truly risen, Alleluia! Alleluia!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are an Easter people; Alleluia is our song.

I thank all of you who came to the parish mission, penance service and the liturgy for Holy Week. I welcome Shelbie Moran, and Chelsea Yarborough into our faith community, a long with those who made a profession of faith, Nikki Holand, Amber Lizana, Carrie Agnelly and Kurt Agnelly.

A special thanks to their teacher, Sherrie DeMello.

It is my hope that all members of our faith community of St. Ann and Our Lady of Chartres, will be more authentic to the Apostolic way. A living Church, a Parish needs active members. The recognition and growth of various ministries is a sign of the resurrection. This is a wonderful sight to see.

I hope that we can as a community, fire up our hearts, mind and spirit to give glory and praise to the risen Lord, who loves us so much, that we can see our community blossom in the love of Christ. Our Church is our responsibility.

Have a Blessed and Holy Easter Season. Alleluia! Alleluia!

*Your Brother in Christ,
Fr. Cuddy*
