

Jesus has said to us his disciples.

1) Love your enemies and do good to them and lend expecting nothing back; to that your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful to you.

2.) Stop judging and you will not be judged.
Stop condemning and you will not be condemned.
Forgive and you will be forgiven,
give, and gifts will be given to you:
a good measure, packed together, shaken down,
and will be poured into your lap.
For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.

I have given you a new commandment, says the Lord;
Love one another as I have LOVED you.

Father Cuddys Corner

A monk in a monastery was very irritated by another monk. He felt that his fellow monk was always making faces at him when they were singing in the choir. After many years the annoyed monk found out that his enemy had a set of false teeth that fit very badly and every time he opened his mouth to sing the teeth became dislodged and he looked like someone make ugly faces. Sometimes we make imaginary because of one weakness, forgetting the other qualities of a person's character.

Lord, when I point a finger at another, help me to notice that the three fingers of the same hand are pointing at myself.

Are you interested in becoming a Eucharistic Minister or Lector?

In the Catholic Church, a lector proclaims the Word of God, and a Eucharistic minister distributes Holy Communion. Both are important roles that require a commitment to faith and service.

Let the office know if you are interested.
